HORRIBLE ASSAULT ON IRISH EDITORS

Belfast Newspaper Managers Knocked Out of Chairs and Permanently Disabled by Husky Female Bullies.

MAYBE ENGLISHMEN WILL RISE UP NOW

Stewart of the Telegraph Assailed With Mucilage Bottles While Anderson of News Is Sent to Bed.

By Leased Wire to Evening Herald. Belfast, Ireland, June 3.—Militants today assaulted managing editors of two of the leading newspapers of Belfast which had criticised the militant campaign.

Two well dressed women, one of them a giantess, went to the Belfast Telegraph office and were ushered into the editor's room. Without speaking a word, the larger one walked up to Mr. Stewart, the managing editor, and with her clenched fist knocked him out of his chair. At the same time her companion buried a mucilage bottle at his head.

The women then went to the News Letter office and made a similar attack on Mr. Anderson of that newspaper. He has since been confined to bed and is under surgical treatment.

Caught Starting Fire, Belfast, Ireland, June 3.—Two suffragettes, Miss Madge Muir and Miss Mary Larmour, who were caught this morning in the act of setting fire to a residence near Belfast, were arrested and committed for trial. Little damage was done by the fire.

TOO LADYLIKE HERETOFORE, Says SUIT SMASHING FIRE. London, June 3.—A savage attack with a hatchet was made today by a young and stylishly gowned suffragette on an attendant at the Dureaderie, who tried to prevent her destroying valuable pictures on exhibition there.

The woman had already ruined two paintings in the gallery, which is in the heart of the fashionable quarter of London, and was hacking at a third when an attendant sensed her arm.

She turned on the man and rained a shower of blows on his body, severely injuring him. Other attendants overpowered her. She kicked and screamed until she was turned over to the police.

A letter was left in the gallery by the attendant's assailant in which she asserts heritance heretofores have been too ladylike. She adds: "To stop this you must give us justice. We are willing to die for it before we give in. We have tried all other ways. We have been too ladylike in the past. Now we are going to fight. Others will arise to take our places. I have joined in the war."

One of the pictures destroyed was "Love Wounded," a priceless engraving by Bataille.

PRISON DOCTOR HORSE WHIPPED IN STREETS.

London, June 3.—The authorities today again assaulted Dr. Francis Edward Forward, medical officer of Holloway jail. Two women armed with horsewhips sprang on to the doctor as he left the prison and were punishing him severely when a policeman came to his rescue.

The women declared their action was a protest against the forcible feeding for which this bent is responsible.

Dr. Forward refused to charge them with assault, but the police detained them on a charge of disorderly conduct. On October 11, 1912, Dr. Forward was attacked in a similar manner.

An arson squad burned a large cricket pavilion at Earlsfield, southwest of London. Another squad set fire to a country residence near Belgrave, but the blaze was extinguished with small damage.

BANK PRESIDENT IN SAN FRANCISCO TAKES GAS ROUTE

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] San Francisco, June 3.—George M. Luchsinger, president of the Humboldt Savings bank, one of the largest financial institutions in the city, committed suicide today by inhaling gas. Financial worry was given as the cause. Officers and directors of the bank issued a statement saying that an examination of the accounts of the institution showed everything to be in good condition.

The affairs of the Humboldt Savings bank are in such condition that they need cause no worry, according to a statement made by W. R. Williams, state superintendent of banks, after hearing of Luchsinger's suicide.

"The books of the bank were inspected about a month ago," he said. "I am satisfied that Luchsinger's death could not have resulted from the bank's financial affairs."

Luchsinger took his life in the basement of his home. He had been ill for some time.

The Humboldt bank was founded by Henry Luchsinger, father of George, in 1869. The son entered the institution in 1891 as a bookkeeper, and became president in 1902. His personal estate is estimated at $5,000. Luchsinger was 59 years old. He left a wife, and son, Arthur Luchsinger.

Helpmeet of Man Whose Reason Returned After Five Months Lapse Expresses Only Mild Interest in Event

Special Dispatch to Evening Herald.

Pueblo, Colo., June 3.—Demonstrating a keen interest in steps that are being taken to restore him to his family, and apparently rational once more, George E. Bartholomew, known for the past five months at a local hospital as "John Doe," today awaiting word from his wife in Minneapolis. Bartholomew yesterday suddenly recovered the use of his mental faculties after suffering from amnesia since last December, when he was found sitting dazed and unable to tell his name, in the railroad depot at Granada, Colo.

Bartholomew's relatives, from whom word is momentarily expected by the hospital authorities, are his wife, Mrs. G. E. Bartholomew, No. 206 University avenue, Minneapolis; his daughter, Mrs. Theodore Barn, 248 Pryor avenue, St. Paul, and his brother, William Bartholomew, 1919 Thirteenth street, Kansas City, Kan.

WIFE QUITE INDIFFERENT AS TO WHAT GEORGE DOES.

Minneapolis, June 3.—Mrs. Bartholomew, whose husband, George E. Bartholomew, recovered his mental faculties yesterday in Pueblo, Colo., was located in Minneapolis this morning. She is a demonstrator.

According to her story, Bartholomew left her about six months ago. He was dissatisfied with home conditions, she said, and when he went away declared that "no one would ever hear from him again," according to her statement. Previous to that, she said, there had been some domestic troubles. She declared the authorities could take whatever action with him they chose.

FATHER ALSO SEEKS TO TAKE THE CASE CALMLY.

Kansas City, June 3.—George Elmer Bartholomew is a son of C. F. Bartholomew, of Kansas City, Kan. He was principal of the Sanborn High school for nine years. Later he established a trade paper in St. Paul.

I have not seen my son since 1911, when he visited here," the father said today. "Since then I have not kept very closely in touch with him. He is, I know, of a high-strung, nervous temperament."

PRESIDENT TO CONFER DIPLOMAS AT ANNAPOLIS.

By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.

Washington, June 3.—President Wilson will present diplomas Friday to the graduating class at the naval academy at Annapolis. He plans to leave Washington tomorrow night on the Mayflower.

"The Latest" Information Is the Only Kind That Is Really Valuable

The latest development in a news story often changes its whole aspect. The latest fact, as to anything of importance, usually alters or qualifies all of the facts that have gone before.

It is not desired to know what was known yesterday about a subject, or about an event. What is known now, today, is the valuable thing. Thus the enterprising EVENING HERALD, keeping in touch with the events of the day, brings you TO-DAY'S FACTS ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS, and in keeping with this policy, it brings you also THE LATEST NEWS OF THE STORES—not facts about what you might have bought, at price-savings, but facts about what you MAY BUY, ON YOUR NEXT SHOPPING TRIP.

This desire for the LATEST FACT about a thing reflects the spirit of the hour—makes the EVENING HERALD the indispensable public service institution that it is. And it applies as much to store-news as to world-news.

ARBITRATION FOR CANAL TOLLS FAVORED BY COMMITTEE

State Foreign Relations Body Moves to Submit Dispute. Will not Affect Repeal Passage.

VARDAMAN BREAKS OUT IN WILD DENUNCIATION

Mississippi Senator Declares He will not Follow Red Flag of Party Infidelity and Predicts Dire Disaster.

By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Washington, June 3.—By a vote of 8 to 6, the senate foreign relations committee today adopted the Southern resolution directing President Wilson to open negotiations with Great Britain for special arbitration of the Panama tolls dispute.

The resolution now goes to the Senate.

Senator Borah, Republican, was not present when the vote was taken, but later notified Chairman Stone he wished to vote against reporting the resolution, making the vote eight to seven.

Senators Stone, O'Gorman, Fennerty, Swanson and Smith of Arizona Democrats, and Smith of Michigan Republican, were the others voting against it.

Senators Hitchcock, Williams and Salisbury, Democrats, and Lodge, Root, McCumber, Sutherland, and Burton voted for it.

Three were not present.

Senator O'Gorman declared the action would not affect the fight against passage of the repeal bill.

"I don't know what the vote indicates," was Chairman Stone's only comment.

"It is well understood in the Senate, however, that many senators who favor arbitration believe before it should be chosen as a method of settlement, the appeal bill should be enacted."

Another change has been made in the number of dead. The latest figures given out in an official statement by the Canadian Pacific Railway and Steamship company show that 1,024 persons perished. The company has learned that there were 1,476 persons aboard the Empress instead of 1,387, as heretofore stated, hence the increase in the death list. The total saved is now given as 472.

Captain Walsh, marine superintendent of the Canadian Pacific railway, arrived here today and issued a statement.

"The Canadian Pacific railway will not relax one iota in doing everything in its power in looking after all the bodies. It may be able to get, with regard to the possibility of raising the Empress of Ireland, the last possible expert opinion is being sought."

Another answer of administration forces to the arguments marshaled against repeal was made by Senator Simmons.

He argued the exemption of American coastwise vessels would be a discrimination forbidden by the treaty between the United States and Great Britain, and "unwise as a domestic policy."

Senator Vardaman declared the Democratic party would not now be threatened with disruption, had it not been for the speech of Senator Root in January, 1912.

"The leadership of Democracy becomes pathetic," said Senator Vardaman, "when we must rely upon the keen astute senator who won his laurels as counsel for predator wealth, to become the keeper of the conscience of the Democratic party—the followers of Jackson and Jefferson, Thoms of Bryan and Root, pillars of the great moral uplift on the people."

"Is the oily logic of the great senator from New York sufficient to justify the repudiation of our pledges?"

Senator Vardaman quoted at length Secretary Bryan's address to the Pennsylvania legislature to the effect that the conscience of the candidate should begin to work before election and not hibernated until after he was in office and declaring that a violation of a party platform was a worse crime than an embezzlement.

In conclusion Senator Vardaman predicted that if the repeal was not the death warrant of the Democratic party, it would be the warrant that would remove it from power and disrupt the good feeling of Americans for Great Britain. Finally, he said, he would not follow the men who bore the red flag of party infidelity.
